¡Hola! Hello! Bonjour!

the artist behind the content,

Eduardo Holguin

Born and raised in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic I am an artist that looks for the extra in the ordinary. Through interpersonal communication, my visuals make an impact that transmits a message. I believe in the humanity behind brands and the awareness they hold.

I currently have a BFA in Advertising and Branding with a concentration in Art Direction with a double minor in Graphic Design and Fashion Photography. I also have different certificates such as a Graphic Design and Advertising certificate by Chavón the School of Design

I enjoy being on social media and editing content. When I'm not working on the next big campaign you can usually find me listening to my favorite tunes, talking in spanglish or looking for cool spots to take pictures.

My client work across the globe includes: Salvatore Ferragamo, Pandora, Herbal Essences, The Presidency of the Dominican Republic, Jusef Sanchez, Shop Lazy Pants. My work has been on SCAD Manor, Listin Diario, Hola Magazine, Oh Magazine!, Shine Magazine, CDN, Ritmo Social, CCN, Diario Libre and other publications.
